As an independent retailer, we strive to set ourselves apart from the big box stores. Part of this is to carry products from companies you can't always find in other stores and more importantly, we want to inspire, educate, and show you how to use them!

We love it when we can bring in a crafting "celebrity" so they can show you the latest and greatest techniques in the industry. We know that your schedules are crazy ... but we hope that YOU, our customer, will get the chance to meet the very people who design for the companies that make some of your favorite products!
